Public Hikes and Programs

(Unless otherwise noted, public programs are free.)

December

Birding 101

Sun., Dec. 4, 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. – Alms Park

Come learn about the latest sport that is sweeping the nation! Winter is a perfect time to learn basic winter birds. Learn some basic techniques to get you started and then go out and practice. Binoculars will be provided or bring your own. Meet at the pavilion steps. Call 761-4313 for more information.

Annual Holiday Craft Workshop

Fri., Dec. 9, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. – LaBoiteaux Woods

Bring the family for a pleasant evening exercising your creative side and relaxing by the fire. Choose what you want to make from a selection of craft projects suited to all ages. Staff will instruct and advise, but the personal touches are up to you. Go home with several completed projects to brighten your home for the holidays. Fee: $5 per person or $10 per family. Paid reservations are required for this popular event. Send your payment with number of people and children's ages. Call 542-2909 for more information.

Hidden Farms of McFarlan Woods

Sat., Dec. 17, 10:30 a.m. - noon – Maple Ridge Lodge

Discover the remains of Cincinnati's more rural history as we explore the old farm fields of Mt. Airy Forest. Along the way we will find old hedgerows, foundations, and structures that hint at a much different past from the now familiar wooded hillsides. Portions of this hike will be off trail and may be somewhat strenuous. For more information and reservations, please call 861-3435.

"Winter in the Woodlands"

Sat., Dec. 10, 5:30 - 8:30 p.m. – California Woods

Families and adults can enjoy a self-guided leisurely walk through the illuminated winter woodlands of California Woods. Warm yourselves around a crackling fire, and if you wish, make an old-fashioned craft. "City Hall Renaissance Orchestra," a five piece acoustic string band will perform. Meet at the Nature Center, but bundle up; it's sure to be a true "winter" experience! A flashlight is suggested. Reservations required by Dec. 9. Call 231-8678 for more information. Fee $5.00 per person, payable day of the program.

National Audubon Bird Count - Western Cincinnati

Sun., Dec. 18, 8:00 a.m. - noon or 5:00 p.m.

Spend a day or half-day improving your birding skills and advancing our knowledge of trends in bird populations. This west-side count is part of a nationwide network. Call 321-6070 ext. 14 for information, or join us at Spring Grove Cemetery's main entrance at 8 a.m. Fee: $5.00 goes to Audubon to help with data compilation.

National Audubon Bird Count - Eastern Cincinnati

Mon., Dec. 26, 8:00 a.m. - noon or 5:00 p.m.

Birding is best in the winter - really! With leaves off the trees, you have a chance to give yourself vivid memories of winter birds you can actually see. Call 321-6070 ext. 14 for more information, or join us at 8 a.m. in the Stanbery Park parking lot. Full or half-day birders welcomed. Fee: $5.00 goes to Audubon to help with data compilation.

January

Brrr...Surviving the Winter Blues!

Sun., Jan. 8, 2:00 - 3:30 p.m. — Theodore M. Berry Friendship Park

Avoid the hustle of crowds at the malls and join us for a leisurely walk along a paved path to discover the clever techniques that native plants and animals use to survive the winter. Along the way, you will also learn the stories behind the unique art works found in the park. Appropriate for all ages! Dress for the weather. Meet at the international flag plaza.

For more information, please call 321-6070 ext. 16.

Atypical Angiosperms: The World of Non-Photosynthetic Plants

Fri., Jan. 13, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. — Avon Woods

Matt Klooster, University of Cincinnati

Sponsored by the Cincinnati Wild Flower Preservation Society

For more information please call 861-3435.

Working with Worms

Sun., Jan. 22, noon - 5:00 p.m. — Krohn Conservatory

Stop by the Conservatory and see how an indoor bin of red worms can digest your kitchen scraps and turn them into nutrient rich compost for your plants.

See bins at various stages and learn how "red wigglers" can work for you. Call 542-2909 for information.

Friday the 13th: The Night Hike

Fri., Jan. 13, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. — Caldwell Nature Center

Do you have triskaidekaphobia? Join us as we dispel superstitious myths and enjoy the almost full moon on this invigorating hike. We will call for owls; try lighting deprivation activities, and having a "sparky party!" Sturdy footwear is a must. Dress for the weather. Call 761-4313 for more information.

Winter Woodland Hike

Sat., Jan. 21, 10:30 a.m. - noon — Parkers Woods

Join us for a brisk hike through a Northside green space that is noted for its mature native trees. Along the way, we'll learn the secrets of winter tree I.D. as well as what some of the parks fuzzier creatures are up to. Meet at the Bruce Ave. entrance. For more information, please call 861-3435.

Winter Breakout!

Sat., Jan. 28, 11:00 a.m. - noon — Little Duck Creek Park

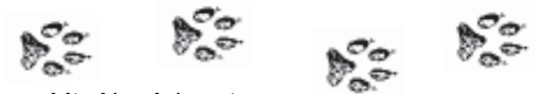

Break out of the house, office, and shopping mall for some fresh air and find out what wildlife is stirring in this small treasure of a nature preserve. We'll stroll along a gentle, easy trail to a nice spot by the creek and look for birds, animal tracks and other evidence of wildlife activity along the way. Call 542-2909 for more information.

February

Vermicomposting at Home

Fri., Feb. 3, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. — LaBoiteaux Woods

An indoor worm bin can be a fascinating way to recycle your kitchen waste into rich compost for your favorite plants. Set up your own bin with materials brought from home. This program is supported in part by the Hamilton County Solid Waste Management District, which will pay half the cost of your worms (a $10 value). Please call 542-2909 for more information, a materials list, and a worm reservation. Fee: $10.00

Let's Make Tracks

Sat., Feb. 4, 10:30 a.m. - noon — Mt. Airy Arboretum

With over 1400 acres of forest and field, Mt. Airy Forest is home to a wide range of local wildlife. We will learn the basics of track identification and search for the many clues and signs left behind for us to observe. Meet at the Arboretum parking lot. For more information and directions, please call 861-3435.

Evolution in the Act: The Change of Trilobites in Cincinnati

Fri., Feb. 10, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. — Avon Woods

Dr. Brenda Hanke, Cincinnati Museum Center

Sponsored by the Cincinnati Wild Flower Preservation Society

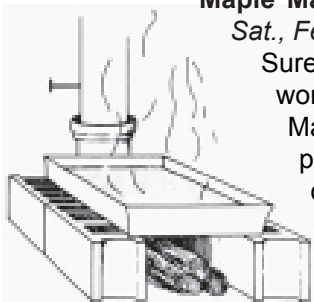

For more information please call 861-3435.

Mystery of Maple

Sat., Feb. 11, 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. — Caldwell Nature Center

Ever wonder where maple syrup comes from and how it is made? Solve the mystery here and now! Find out why maple syrup can only be made this time of year and taste three different forms of production. Dress for the weather. Meet at the nature center. Reservations are required. Call 761-4313 for reservations or more information.

Maple Magic

Sat., Feb. 18, 10:00 - 11:30 a.m. — California Woods

Sure, maple syrup tastes great, but have you ever wondered how trees make it and why? Find out the Maple tree's magic trick for making food and how we people turn it into syrup. Join us as we tap trees, collect sap and cook it down into pure sweetness. Reservations required. Call 231-8678 for more information or to make a reservation. Free.

Squirrels to Stones Scavenger Hunt

Sat., Feb. 25, 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. — Fleischmann Gardens

Are your kids experiencing cabin fever? Are you needing a breath of fresh winter air? Do you want a reminder that Spring is around the corner? Join us for an active and fun hunt for common nature objects and discover some interesting facts along the way. Appropriate for all ages! Dress for the weather. Meet at the paved platform on the lower level. Please call 321-6070 ext. 16 for more information.

Look Ahead: March is Maple Month

Maple in Mt. Airy

Sat., March 4; breakfast seatings by reservation — Oak Ridge Lodge

After an all-the-pancakes-you-can-eat breakfast, take a haywagon ride to the Arboretum, where you'll see how people have turned sap into syrup over the centuries. Fee: $7.00 per person. Reservations required; call 321-6070.

Pancakes in the Woods

Sun., March 12 — California Woods

Celebrate the maple season! Enjoy pancakes and sausage grilled by celebrity chefs and listen to the story of sugaring. All proceeds benefit California Woods and Magrith Riverlands Preserves. Fee: $6.00 adults, $3.00 children.

Reservations NOT required. Call 231-8678 for information.

Krohn Conservatory

Eden Park's Krohn Conservatory is a nationally recognized showcase of more than 3,500 plant species from all over the world. The Palm, Tropical, Desert and Orchid houses exhibit permanent displays of exotic plants in natural settings, complete with a 20' rainforest waterfall. The Display House features the stunning floral shows listed below. Call 421-5707 for more information.

Free admission; donations accepted.

Open daily from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

A Bavarian Holiday

November 19 — January 4, 2006

This year's Holiday Show features a Bavarian theme befitting of Cincinnati's German heritage. Many Christmas holiday traditions currently practiced in Cincinnati originated in Germany. The Krohn Conservatory embraces a few of these traditions each year. A tall Christmas tree decorated with handmade ornaments will occupy the lobby; the showroom will feature a gingerbread house complete with Hansel and Gretel (immortalized by the German brothers Grimm), and an oversized music box comprised of miniature replicas of familiar Cincinnati buildings (some featuring German architecture). Free admission/donations accepted. Call 352-5707 for more information; 352-3380 TTY
